

Southern Christmas party

Once again the clan assembled for the pre-Christmas get-together at the Parkin's in Kent with members coming from the South as far as Wiltshire and the North from Lancashire & Yorkshire, with lots from in-between places such as the Home Counties and East Anglia.

Some of the crew arrived the night before and on this occasion Gwenda Bowden kindly provided extra accommodation in Kemsing.

Saturday went with the usual swing as everyone set about consuming the wonderful array of food & drink provided by the members and nattering away to their hearts content. The prizes were raffled and produced £129.00 which it was agreed should go into the 'Spare Parts Fund'. Late in the afternoon the party started to disperse, however those staying over then met up at The Napoli restaurant in Westerham for an evening meal (Ed- I wonder they had room for more food).

On the Sunday those who had stayed the night visited a local pub for lunch before returning to Gwenda's house for the evening to consume fondu and other goodies. A great time was had by all.
